DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 22, 2005, has been entered.

2. In view of Applicant's arguments and the presently filed 1.132 Declaration, the prior art rejections have been overcome.

Response to Amendment

3. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed December 22, 2005, is sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1, 6-8, 11-14, 16, and 25-34 based upon Chen (US 3,900,625).

Double Patenting

4. Claims 1, 6-8, 11-14, 16, and 25-34 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,713,411. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims are obvious variants over one another.

Rejection is maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1, 6-8, 11-14, 16, and 25-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is the Examiner's position that the specification of the present Application does not enable one having ordinary skill in the art to pass the NFPA 701-1989 test. Applicant's 1.132 Declaration shows that the Chen (3,900,625) fails the NFPA 701-1989 test. However, Chen discloses the same structure as Applicant, i.e. laminates comprising PVC film, polyethylene film, synthetic nonwoven fabric, adhesive, antimony oxide and chlorinated paraffin fire retardants. It is unclear to the Examiner how Chen's laminate, which discloses the same structure as Applicant, has failed the test. There appears to be missing information in the present specification and claims that aids the structure in Applicant's claims to pass the NFPA test. Further clarification and correction is required.
